

RONALD REAGAN

March 25, 1993

Dear Dorothy and Jerry:

It gives me great pleasure to join with all those gathered in adding my warmest congratulations on this special evening being held in your honor.

During the Beeve Foundation's First Annual Fundraiser, "The Opportunity of a Lifetime," it is more than appropriate that you should be recognized for your dedicated efforts. Dorothy and Jerry, over the years your mission to provide basic eye and health care to others has been a shining example to each of us. Indeed, your generous spirit has touched the lives of countless many. I am proud to commend you and congratulate you on this well-deserved honor.

I would also like to add a special thanks to the volunteers of the Beeve Foundation. You are to be commended for your ongoing commitment to bring the beauty of vision to others. Through your dedication you are providing wonderful services and enriching your fellowman's lives. Thank you for a job well done.

Nancy and I send our heartfelt appreciation to each of you for your outstanding service, compassion and distinguished record enhancing the lives of others. We send our best wishes for a memorable evening. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan
